

ALL URGENT MATTERS... THE SUN'S SMOKE FUND

Many New Friends Contribute for Tobacco to Be Sent "Over There." GIFTS TOTAL $890,649

Soldiers Send Messages of Thanks—Cigarettes Are in Great Demand.

A night or two after the smoke fund announced it was out for all the money it could get with which to buy tobacco for the soldiers and ship it across in time to insure their smoking it on Christmas and New Year's days...

Here's a Good Example. The employees of the Niagara Life Insurance Company, as soon as they heard the Christmas drive was on, placed a box on the cover of which they printed "Contribution for the Christmas Drive of the Sun Tobacco Fund..."

Almost all the entertainments now planned for the holidays are scheduled for November and December. The cabaret at Weimann's Domino Rooms on St. Nicholas avenue, scheduled for November, will be held in Plainfield, N. J., on the same date.

Parties Help the Fund. The committee in charge of a block party and flag raising on Forty-first street between Eighth and Ninth avenues last Saturday night, made a gift to the fund which is regularly acknowledged to-day. Thanks are given to the Church of the Living God for its help and support.

The Acme Club, of which Rose Goo is leader, is selling tickets for its dance for the benefit of the Sun Tobacco Fund, to be held in the rooms of the Hebrew Educational Society, Herkimer and Centre avenues, Brooklyn, November 15. On the same date, the Children's Fund will hold a bazaar at the Hotel McAlpin from which the smoke fund will receive 10 per cent. of the gross proceeds.

Peter Fredericks, Veteran Corps, Twenty-sixth Division, writes to SUN donors: "Gentlemen—Yesterday we received some of the cigarettes you so kindly sent us through the agency of THE SUN. We appreciate the thought and the gratification is far too great to express through the mail. Tobacco we seldom see; cigarettes we never see, and your present of the cigarettes will be certainly a luxury to us, and we will not forget the good SUN Tobacco Fund."

How the Fund Stands to-day. THE SUN and THE EVENING STAR, $6,000.00. United Cigar Stores, Inc., $1,000.00. States Tobacco Co., $1,000.00. A. L. Partridge, general sales manager, $1,000.00. Total shipped and paid for, $17,000.00.

MAJOR LEONARD SOON AFTER PROMOTION

John E. Hardy, Brooklyn, Son of Civil War Veteran, Served on Border.

TELLS OF FIERCE BATTLE Machine Gunner, Wounded at St. Quentin, Writes Account of U. S. Attack.

A letter has been received by Mrs. Matilda Hardy, 2428 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, announcing the death in action of her husband, Major John E. Hardy, Company G, 16th Infantry.

Major Hardy had been a member of the Fourteenth Regiment for fifteen years and had served on the Mexican border prior to his transfer to the 16th Infantry. He had but recently been promoted to Major.

He was the son of the late Michael Hardy, a civil war veteran, and was engaged in the banking business with Bond & Gordon, 111 Broadway, before his departure for France.

Another Brooklyn man reported killed in action is Lieut. Edgar M. Whitlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Whitlock, 1205 Pacific street.

Later he was with the 102d Engineers in Flanders under Gen. O'Hanry of the Twenty-seventh Division, which included the 16th Infantry. He was a graduate of Cornell University and had received his preparatory education at Boys High School.

During his college days he was prominent in athletics. Describes St. Quentin Fight. New York stormed a ridge in the fighting about St. Quentin the morning of September 27, in the face of terrific machine gun fire, is described vividly in a letter received recently by Arthur J. Brooks, 35 Maple place, Port Chester.

Safe as in the Old "Flivver"

"I could not walk as I was too weak from loss of blood, but finally some stretcher bearers came along and carried me back to an ambulance that took me to one of the large dressing stations where an X-ray was taken of my back and morphine administered to deaden the pain. The pieces of shrapnel were then cut out of me."

"I felt just as safe as if I were home driving the old flivver" was the comment of Sergeant Isaac Tinsworth in a letter from the German front. He was a member of Company K, 35th Infantry. Two other brothers, Morris and William, are in the service.
